German & Spanish (native) · English (fluent) | Open to Full-Stack, Backend, or AI Automation roles — 100% Remote

Full-Stack Developer (React.js · Node.js · Go) with 8+ years building and shipping production web applications end-to-end. I architect fast, modular systems with scalability designed in from day one — recent work includes Sestife, an enterprise accounting platform for the Port of Tenerife serving 2,000+ users in continuous production use. My economics background sharpens how I think: in systems, trade-offs, and long-term value. I own projects from inception to deployment, and consistently build beyond the job description — from profitable trading algorithms to AI-powered automation pipelines.

Reverse-engineered a legally-protected 37-year legacy MSSQL database with complex, undocumented stored procedures. Implemented role-based access control across ~200 company accounts, replacing manual permission handling entirely.
